Confirmation of PhD Candidature Milestones, School of Social and Cultural Studies.

All the following specified tasks should have been completed by the due date of the first Annual Progress Report where the PhD candidate is enrolled fulltime. The Board of the Graduate Research School may grant an extension of three months if warranted at which time the School will provide an Interim Report certifying that the tasks have been completed.

Tasks and Timeframe for fulltime PhD candidatures [Part-time in brackets]

1. Within 6 [9] Months:
   Literature Review; Proposal, and Ethics Application where needed, vetted by Discipline Advisory Panel and forwarded to Graduate Research School.

2. By 9 [12] Months:
   An Oral Presentation of work to Discipline Seminar or a Chapter (minimum 5,000 words) read by Discipline Advisory Panel, according to individual discipline practice.

3. Completion of any relevant, approved development activity as cited specifically in the Research Proposal.

4. 12 [24] Months:
   Annual Report including confirmation that all agreed tasks have been completed.